H. A. Duncan, of Owenses, is ever ready to give you a bargain if you need anything in his line.

To H. A. Duncan, Owenses, for the fair grounds, in fact, caps, shoes and clothing of all kinds.

Don't fail to call on H. A. Duncan, late of the firm of B. L. Duncan & Son, where he is now.

All persons invited to Third, Gillstrap will please call and settle at once and save trouble or cost.

44-3 W. N. MARTIN, Attorneys.

H. A. Duncan, on Fredonia Street, Owenses, is the place to get the best and most stylish suits for the least money.

Geo. Collins, colored, of Hartford, fell from a stable while at work on a stable Monday, and received severe injuries.

Mr. J. B. Sanderfer, of Beaver Dam, who was thrown from his buggy in Hartford some two months since, is able to be out again.

Have you ever applied at the Red Front? If not you should call before they are gone. They are the finest ever brought to Hartford.

Stayed or visited about June 15th, two three year old steers, one black and the other red and white. STEVE.

Hartford, Ky., 45 ft.

With winter fast approaching, it is soon for the past three or four days from the effects of a kick by a horse on his ankle. He will be out in a day or two.

Miss Bettie McFayre, of Whiteside, and Mr. Woodson, of Cave City, were married Monday morning at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. Jeff McFayre.

All wood, dutch with brown treat at 45 cents a yard at Anderson's Bazaar. Oak stems from Louisville at 50 cents and compare with those good if you please.

Just received another statement of the best fall and winter coat in town at 12.50, and quality at 50 cents. Children's and misses at 50 to 80 cents at Anderson's Bazaar.

Calvin Wilson, living over Horton, nearly severed one of his toes from his foot with a axe last Saturday morning. He was splitting wood, when he was struck by a rock. He is in a much worse bit than he had.

The man manager of the W. S. & L. Manufacturing of Owenses, continues to make quick sales and small profits. They are enabled thereby to give the best goods for the least money.

You want to buy a fine-class steel farm of 160 acres with good dwellings and out-buildings, terraces, ponds, and a fine heating neighborhood? Then, call at the H. A. Office.

Have you seen the new book offered by S. A. Williams for three dollars? If not, you should call and see it. If you need anything in this line, you will do well to call on him before you purchase elsewhere.

The schoolroom will be submitted to Hester Matthews and Miss Lissie Morris and perhaps others who have joined the Christian church at the Union bridge on Hough river this afternoon at five o'clock.

The series of raising flocks is to keep them healthy and free from disease especially sheep. Dr. Alexander Kennedy has discontinued that for it is Generals Chikken Cholera Cure. It is warrantied and sold by druggists.

Dr. Alexander lectured at Pleasant Grove church last Saturday night to a large and intelligent audience. He was accompanied on his trip by Mrs. Alexander, and they were elegantly entertained by Mr. C. W. Butler while there.

Mrs. R. A. Stewart and R. T. Monday have opened up a meat shop at the James stand and respectfully solicit the patronage of Hartford and vicinity. They are fully prepared to furnish their customers with the very best meat in the market.

W. E. & L. N. Parish, Owenses, Ky., manufacturers for wallpaper, book-covers, frame walls, paper, beautiful Thanksgiving cards, albums and an endless variety of toys. Send by C. Bennett to them for Christmas goods of all kinds.

Thomas Biss, hardly seeing losing their bay-hair and contents on their farm last Friday night by fire. Some time in the afternoon we got out to see what had occurred, and it took the combined efforts of six or seven men to get it under control.

The Uncommon Imposter of the 7th Rev. L. C. Ticehurst, of Zion, Owenses, county died Saturday at her home and was buried yesterday at South Hill. Rev. W. H. Dawson preaching the funeral service.

"Graffiti" sent us last week quite a curiosity in the form of a sweet potato that grew from another potato which was transplanted after it had produced a quantity of slips. The new potato tumbled out from the old ones, and grew well present, and the BISHOP John company.

Forest Fires.

Destructive fires were raging in the northern part of the country near Adams Friday and Saturday. Monday morning, however, the flames had been quenched, and the smoke still hangs over the ground as an interloper. The ground is an industry, good citizen and the tribe a very comely German. We are told that the happy pair have the good wishes of all who are present, and the BISHOP John company.

First Quarterly Meeting.

The first quarterly meeting of the Elkhorn River Valley meet at No Creek church on Saturday and Sunday, November 19 and 20.

H. M. FORD, Presiding Elder,

E. C. CAMPBELL, Presiding Elder,

A. B. BOOG, Presiding Elder.

A Big Boom.

We are informed that a company from Alabama have leased the mineral rights on 2000 acres of land in the valley between the two rivers, and our timber and timber dealers will be well repaid for examining the wild rocky display letters in the advertisement of Richy Attila.

When you go to Owenses, you should not fail to call on H. A. Duncan on Fredonia Street near post office. He has many good boats to offer you and ways to get them. In short, he has great bargains in every thing usually kept in a first-class drug store.

Why Would You Do So?

Why would you buy ladies' fashions and pay $4 or $5 for it when you can get on just as well in the Anderson's Bazaar for 17.50 or 22.50? Why not buy a ladies' newspaper and save $4 or $7 for it when you can buy a finer, cheaper, and more fashionable outfit at Anderson's Bazaar for $3.50 to $5?

Wanted.

The Military and Commercial wants to be filled with 2000 pairs of socks, 1000 hats, 1000 shirts, 1000 pairs of breeches, etc., etc. Mr. Taylor has exhibited considerable distinction as a young lawyer of ability, while Tim Hill has long been recognized as one of the leading lawyers of Kentucky. This will be a strong firm, and no doubt a very successful one at Anderson's Bazaar for $1.50 to $2.

Mark Howard.

Mr. H. P. Taylor and Adjt. Gen. S. E. Hill returned Sunday from a visit to the military academy at West Point, New York.

Frank Murphy.

Mr. Frank Murphy made a business trip to Louisville last week, returning home Saturday morning.

Albert Bissell, one of the most popular men in the Green River country, was in town last week.

Mr. J. C. Thomas, who has been to the city of Louisville, returned home Saturday night, took up with his wife, and has kept up even since. He will follow them in the woods to the city—Owenses, Kentucky, etc.

Monk's.

Monk's made a business trip to Louisville last week, returning home Saturday morning.

Mr. J. C. Thomas, who has been to the city of Louisville, returned home Saturday night.

Franklin Herald Office.

Mr. Frank Murphy, owner of the Franklin Herald, has been to Louisville to look for a publisher.

Patrons Your Home Bakery.

I recommended the Hartford bakery to the public during the fair, but I had over 500 boxes of bread or cake, or for trade for a good horse or mule. For any information concerning same call on address.

Mark Howard.

Mr. H. P. Reid and Miss Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reid, have been to the Hartford bakery a name. His trade and sales are fine, and the work was done with dispatch. I live in Louisville and can buy handier and cheaper in Hartford. So I recommend the Hartford bakery to Mr. Gauthier respectfully.

Franklin Journal.

I have taken charge of the stock of goods and accounts of Toms, tiller, etc., for the past three days, and I desire to close up the accounts as far as possible, and to do this as quickly as possible, and to do this I must call all who are indebted to him, to call and settle at once. Don't fail to call on the manager of the bank who are being paid off as soon as possible.

The Largest Book Published.

The latest edition of Webster's Unabridged, in the quantity of matter it contains, is believed to be the largest ever published. It is a volume so large that it is necessary to know to whom it belongs.

Mr. A. L. Williams, who is conducting a very successful school at Walton's Creek, Owenses, gave us a visit Saturday evening, and will go to Greenville to-day and ought to be present at Liverpool on Wednesday.

Rev. E. J. Madlock and Mr. A. P. Mueller.

Rev. E. J. Madlock and Mr. A. P. Mueller, were in Hartford Friday night on their way to Louisville to buy handier and cheaper in Hartford. So I recommend the Hartford bakery to Mr. Gauthier respectfully.
